GOVERNOR DOYLE PROCLAIMS CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

Governor Jim Doyle has proclaimed January 31 through February 6, 2010, as Catholic Schools Week in Wisconsin.

The proclamation coincides with the national observance of Catholic Schools Week by Catholic schools across the country. The theme for this year's observance is "Catholic Schools – Dividends for Life."

In the proclamation, Governor Doyle stated, "Catholic schools strive to foster the growth of the whole person in preparation for the future."

Wisconsin's 334 Catholic schools, which enroll over 63,000 students statewide, will host a multitude of events in recognition of Catholic Schools Week.

A copy of the proclamation is attached.
