The earth is our common home and all of us are brothers and sisters. If indeed “the just ordering of society and of the state is a central responsibility of politics,” the Church “cannot and must not remain on the sidelines in the fight for justice.”

Pope Francis, Evangelii gaudium #183

Themes of Catholic Social Teaching

The directions for our public witness are found in Scripture and Catholic social teaching. Here are the key principles of our social teaching:

Life and Dignity of the Human Person
We believe that human life is sacred from conception to natural death, that people are more important than things, and that the measure of every institution is whether it protects and respects human persons.

Call to Family, Community, and Participation
The human person is not only sacred, but social. Every person has a right to participate in social, economic, and political life, and a corresponding duty to work for the common good.

Rights and Responsibilities
Each person also has a right to the conditions for living a decent life – faith and family life, food and shelter, education and employment, health care and housing. We also have a duty to secure and respect these rights not only for ourselves, but for others, and to fulfill our responsibilities to our families, to each other, and to the larger society.

Option for the Poor and Vulnerable
Scripture teaches that God has a special concern for the poor and vulnerable. Jesus, who identified himself with "the least of these", came to preach "good news to the poor, liberty to captives...and to set the downtrodden free." The Church calls on all of us to embrace this preferential option for the poor and vulnerable, to embody it in our lives, and to work to have it shape public policies and priorities.

Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers
The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's act of creation.

Solidarity
We are one human family. We are our brothers' and sisters' keepers, wherever they may be. Saint John Paul II insists, "We are all really responsible for all."

Care for God's Creation
The world that God created has been entrusted to us. Our stewardship of the Earth is a form of participation in God’s act of creating and sustaining the world.

March 2017
The Catholic presence in Wisconsin includes:

- Over 1.4 million Catholics in five dioceses;
- 722 Catholic parishes;
- 1,821 priests and deacons;
- 2,184 religious sisters and brothers;
- Catholic churches and agencies across the state that spend tens of millions of dollars annually to provide food, clothing, shelter, day care, elder care, adoption services, and pregnancy, family and personal counseling to people of all races and religions;
- 292 Catholic elementary, middle and high schools annually enrolling approx. 58,712 students;
- Five Catholic publications with a combined regular circulation of over 80,000;
- Officiating at over 3,587 marriage ceremonies, or over 13% of all marriages performed in Wisconsin annually;
- Nine Catholic colleges and universities, enrolling over 27,328 students of all ages, races, and religions;
- Forty Catholic hospitals, as well as numerous clinics and long-term care facilities; and
- Over 600 Catholic cemeteries.

The Wisconsin Catholic Conference (WCC) was founded in 1969 by the bishops of Wisconsin. The Conference seeks to fulfill the vision of the Second Vatican Council, which called upon the Church to be more involved in the world.

With the message of the Gospel and the social teachings of the Church as its foundation, the WCC offers a specifically Catholic contribution to state and federal public policy debates. The Conference also offers a statewide response to issues common to its five dioceses. It achieves this in several ways:

- Serves as an advocate on matters related to the interests and values of the Church;
- Provides decision makers with studied positions on social and moral issues;
- Offers a forum for diocesan personnel to meet, exchange information, deliberate, and recommend policies or actions; and
- Formulates and publishes opinions and positions on legislation and public policy.

Structure

The bishops of Wisconsin comprise the Board of Directors of the Wisconsin Catholic Conference. The President of the Board is the Archbishop of Milwaukee. The Board meets three times a year to review issues and set the WCC’s legislative agenda.
